

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

North Cascades National Park
810 State Route 20
Sedro-Woolley, WA 98284
360-854-7200
www.nps.gov

North Cascades National Park Service Complex News Release

Contact: Ken.Hires@nps.gov or Telephone Ken Hires 509-699-2080 ext. 13

North Cascades National Park Considers Clean-up of Firing Ranges in Stehekin and Newhalem.

July 16, 2014 – Sedro Woolley, WA - North Cascades National Park will hold public meetings on July 22nd, 2014 in Stehekin and July 24th, 2014 in Newhalem, for review and public comment on clean up of two firearm shooting ranges at Newhalem and Stehekin. The Stehekin public meeting will be held at the Community Building in Stehekin from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m. The Newhalem public meeting will be held at Currier Hall in Newhalem from 5 p.m. – 7 p.m.

The National Park Service strongly encourages interested members of the public to comment, in writing, on the documents contained in the Administrative Record as well as the EE/CA itself. All comments must be received in writing on or before August 15th, 2014, to be considered and responded to in the final Engineering Evaluation and Cost Analysis decision. Comments can be provided at the public meetings, through the PEPC website (below), or by U.S. mail to Superintendent's Office, North Cascades National Park Complex, 810 State Route 20, Sedro Woolley, WA 98284.

Superintendent Karen Taylor-Goodrich said, "As we consider cleaning up these firing ranges, we would like to hear public comments before proceeding with this course of action. We invite the public to come to the meetings and express their views."

For more information, the public can contact Kerri Cook at (360) 854-7280 or email Kerri_Cook@nps.gov.

Information and a place to make comments online can be found at:
<http://parkplanning.nps.gov/NOCAFiringRanges>

Visit the North Cascades National Park Service Complex website at: www.nps.gov/noca.

Experience Your America

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.