

Speed humps are raised areas in the paved surface of a street that extend across the roadway. Speed humps typically range in length from 12, 14 and 22 feet and generally range in height between three to four inches.

Scored Roadway Surface
'Rumble Strips'

Raised Crosswalk with Stamped
Asphalt Crosswalk Pattern